Introducing HOSA to the Raiders

Senior Juanita Clark shows her Raider pride "Do it, Do it."

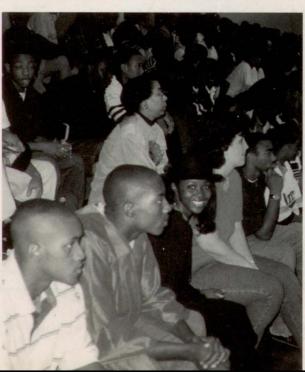

"All eyes on us." Seniors show their spirit

Team pride, by freshman Jennifer Curry.

Rev. Gary Curry prepares to bring back the pride!

Color Specific

When it's pep rally time at Northeast you can be sure that all the Raiders will be ready and waiting to show their spirit. You can be confident that you'll see that familiar plethora of Raider colors illuminating the Lasseter Gym: Freshmen will be covered with white because they are the inexperienced neophytes. The sophomores will be dressed in a fiendish black to show the foolishness that their name designates. Juniors will be drenched with gold which shines to show their eminent emergence into the realm of the upperclassmen. Finally, the seniors will be decked out in red to show that they are outgoing, ready to face all challenges, and that they stand out in any crowd. "To wear red at the pep rally showed me that I was truly a REAL senior" says Monica Lee.

School Spirit

Raiders are.....

Is the Raider Spirit dead?

Raider band waiting to jam at the Pep rally.

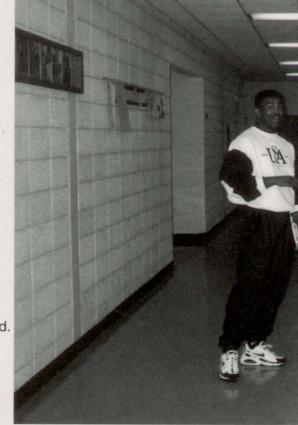

Sharmia Sanders' got that spirit!

Way to go 6'9"!

"I got a feeling somone is watching me."

We've got the hall covered.

The breezeway is my territory!

Eat your lunch.

I'll check this room.

The vocational building is off limits!

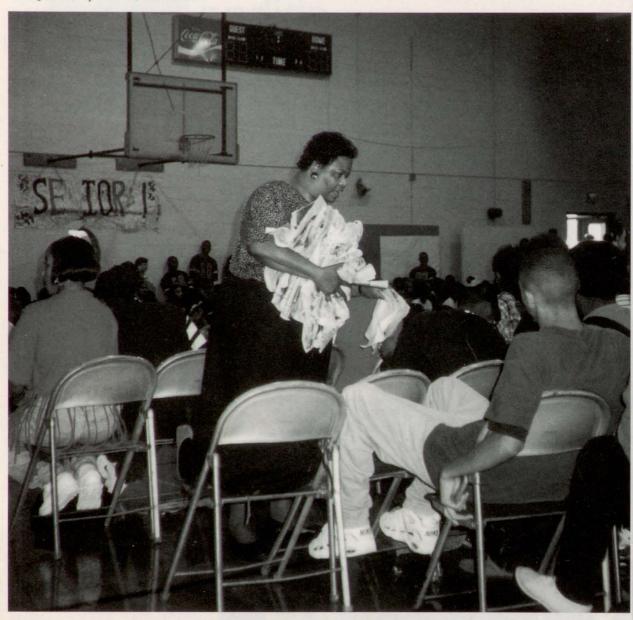

Move right along.

The science lab is on target.

Dr. Bell knows that you don't shut out the underclassmen by hiding behind newspapers to show Senior Raider pride. The senior have enough school spirit in their class to pass on to the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

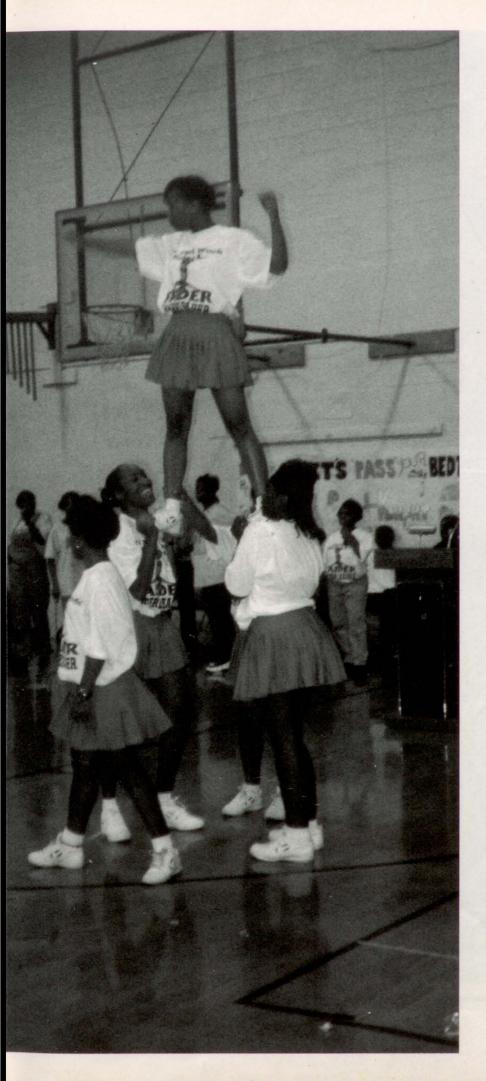

Rodney Jordan, Nigra Tarpley, Chakela Crawford, and Kauana Huston are almost ready to let it show at the pep

Don't cry. Northeast has always had school spirit and will continue to be full of it.

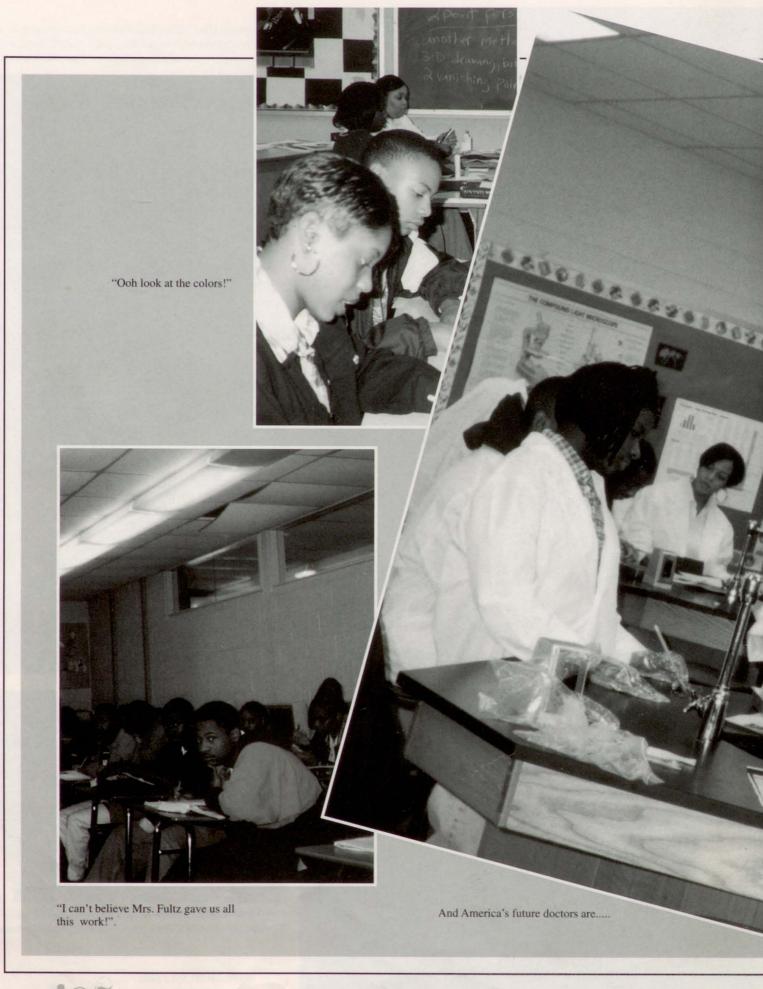

We're number one

Northeast has a lot of.

School Spirit...

On Marie

The cheerleaders are mounting their spirit to the top. Cheering and leading the crowd definitely get the spirit flowing.

"Do you understand MauriceTM?".

"You see class, the Fertile Crescent.....

Working Smart

"You're doing a great job."

The sun is high and the shade is right. Let's "fall" in for a group picture.

Grady Lester and Golightly are chilling during lunch.

Whoever said that teachers can't chill? Mrs. Duhart and Mrs. Williams didn't.

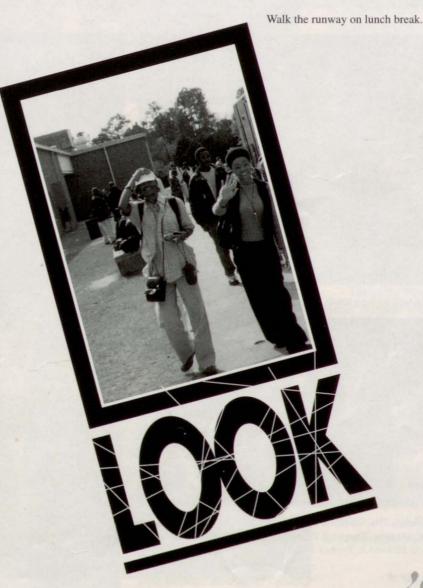

Northeast High School is....

LOOKING SHARP!

There is never a dull moment.... lots of learning, laughter, and fun.

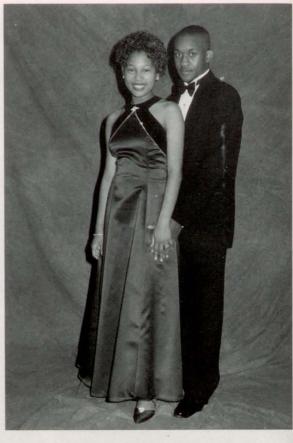

There's nothing like having friends at Northeast on lunchbreak

Homecoming Hits Northeast

The winning contestants for the 1996 Homecoming

Contestants for Miss Northeast Nicoya Watkins, Lisa Newson, Takiba Johnson. Winner Chasity Emory.

Contestants for Miss Senior, Jasmine Willliams, Turanza Whipple, Anitra Kendrick. Winner, Nira Hicks

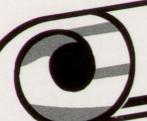

Contestants posing to show off their beauty and style.

Beauty is only skin deep, but the most true and natural beauty comes from within. This internal beauty is portrayed in the maturing young ladies at Northeast. And our young men, they depict strength, morality, and courage. Believe it or not, it takes all of these characteristics to win the heart of a Raider because Northeast won't settle for anything less.

Continuing the tradition for Northeast and the class of 1997 are Emory Gross and Chasity Emory, who were crowned Mr. and Miss Northeast. They were selected by their peers from a contestant panel that also included Takiba Johnson, Lisa Newsome, Nicoya Watkins, Jasmine Williams, Tarik Booze, and Atari Hill.

Everlasting memories of the senior class of 97 were created for Tarus Lowe and Niya Hicks, who were crowned Mr. and Miss Senior. Mr. and Miss Junior were Dwayne Tharpe and Johan Ishmail. Mr. and Miss Sophomore were Jeffrey Washington and Jimese Davis. Mr. and Miss Freshman were Curtis "Terry" Langston and LaTonya Hall.

These contestants for Mr. and Miss Senior were chosen from other senior participants who were Lashondra Brundridge, Anitra Kendrick, and Temarcus Cleveland. For Miss Junior, the contestants were Lakecia Jackson and Quashundria Williams. Contestants for Miss Sophomore were Alesha Hicks and Shemeca Mitchell. Miss Freshman contestants were Jonda Rhoden and Kawhanda Talton. We thank all contestants for their participation in our homecoming court.

Now, we look back. We remember all the good times and bad, friends we've made and friends we have lost, the battles, and the gifts that seemed to come from Heaven. One Chapter draws to a close and we begin another. As the last golden rays of this day fade into purple dusk, let us hold tightly to the promise of dawn, while never losing the lessons we have learned. Those lesson were candles which will always burn.

Northeast Spirit

At Northeast High, we definitely have school spirit. Students come together from all classes in support of any school function. Seniors led the pack with their high intensity and motivation, but beyond school spirit, the seniors possess leadership. Then you have the juniors anxious, energetic, and ready to take over the senior's place in "98". The sophomores jump in with high hopes of being juniors. The freshmen class has had a slice of the pie and now they want it all. We have school spirit because our pride speaks for itself.

he Northeast
Raiders had a pre y good season. The Raiders continued to work hard even when things didn't go their way. This season they proved that they had the hearts of champions. We're proud of you guys!!

Track Times

The Northeast High track team had a very successful year.

Track and Field is an event the Raider and Raideretts look forward to. It is a time where the students show off their talents and skills. With much effort and sweat, the team managed to have a very successful year.

Looking back....

Every Raider can recall memories of sadness, tears, and pain. However, these memories are outweighed by those of happiness, camaraderie, and triumph. We have reflected back and appreciate the past. Now is the time to envision the future and begin moving forward......

Veronica,

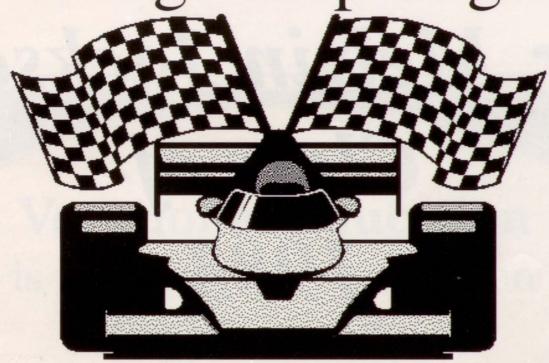

We have watched you grow and are very proud of the things you have achieved. Graduating from high school is a major achievement and we applaud you in this effort.

You have been an ideal daughter and we love you for it. As you begin another phase of your life, never forget those this we taught you. Remember, that a person who fail to do his best, fails himself.

We love you very much and will always be here for you.
